OPINION OF THE PRESS.

"The skirt is really the one thing desired, being a style of clothing any amount of which would be welcome to us all."—New York Tribune.

"Rodney's Family Record."

"The Standard Skirt is the greatest Improvement in house-wives."—N. Y. Daily Times.

"They are not equalled in elegance, durability, or convenience."—Evening Post.

"The Duplex Elliptic is accepted as the latest and most perfect in skirts."—N. Y. Evening Post.

"It gives the most ordinary dress a more becoming and elegant appearance."—Evening Post.

CAUTION.

To guard against imposition, we advise you not to buy any skirt unless it is made by the firm of J. W. Bradley & Co., of New York, or by one of their agents.

On this subject we can assure you that no skirt or double spring in each skirt

is made by any other manufacturer.

As it is a small matter, which can trouble

anybody who is clear on the point of duty,

and on the point of duty we at least are clear.

Mr. THOMPSON'S LECTURE.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of last night, a large and very distinguished audience came out to hear Mr. Thompson's lecture on "John Bull at Home." The lecture was heard with admiration and delight. It was a grand success. A more genial, happy, and appreciative picture of England and the English people has seldom or never been drawn. It shows the hand of a master, inspired by the heart of a true man. The expectation of Mr. Thompson's audience was very high, but, as it was, it was fulfilled to overflowing. His lecture is thoroughly charming. In addition to its moral solid merits, it exactly hits the popular taste. It is brimful of tact as well as talent. We should like to hear it again. Who that has ever heard it would not?

EXECUTIVE CLEMENT.—It will be remembered that last summer, at a picnic in the country, our present Governor, Dick Moore, was cut to pieces by three of the Randolphs. They had knocked down and were beating to death an old man of about sixty years. Dick interceded to save the old man's life, and the three men then turned upon Moore and cut him with knives and beat him with clubs until life was nearly extinct. A more ruthless attack upon a man was never perpetrated in this country. Yet, yesterday morning, a pardon, in advance of trial, was filed, freeing all three of the Randolphs from merited punishment. We know not what representations were made to his Excellency, but we do know that in granting this pardon the Governor has committed an outrage—anoultly, of course, for he has undoubtedly been imposed upon by this community. When such men as the Randolphs, who are scarcely ever out of a scrape, are pardoned, what security have peaceful citizens for their lives? We do not blame the Governor in this matter, but we do blame those who imposed upon him.

SUSPICIONS.—The Louisville correspondent of the New Albany Ledger reported the following item yesterday: "The particulars of a robbery and murder which occurred in Jackson County, Indiana, were chronicled in the Ledger a few days since, in which it was stated that a large amount of silver was stolen. A few days since some suspicious looking men passed several silver half dollars at a drinking-house in the upper part of this city, the fact of which came to the knowledge of the police authorities last evening, and officer Sinkhorn has secured the money on which there are spots of blood. This fact has led the officers to suspect the parties were concerned in the horrible transaction above alluded to. Should their suspicions prove true, the old adage of 'murder will out' will again be realized."

Dr. D. W. Yandell's two horses which were stolen Saturday night were found Sunday morning by a gentleman on Eighteenth street and brought back to Dr. Y.

No news has been heard from the thieves. As to whether they got tired and dismounted or were frightened at the idea of pursuit or concluded it was more honest to walk weary than to ride feloniously, and unbosomed themselves in a pang of remorse—all remains a mystery, and we await further information with intense anxiety.

The horses, themselves, in returning so promptly, evidently showed good, hard horse sense. And we would remark in conclusion that the two distinguished quadrupeds will find their resting good quarters with their old master, who, though not a quartermaster, is as clever a man or master as lives in any quarter.

HORSES.—Our Chief of Police was notified yesterday that on Saturay a horse and rider were captured in the Seventh street. The thief is known to be a man of medium size, wearing a black coat and trousers, and a black hat. He was riding a dark-colored horse, and was wearing a black leather belt. He was carrying a large pocket knife and a pistol. He was seen near the intersection of Fourth and Seventh streets, and was last seen near
the intersection of Fifth and Seventh streets.

HORSE-STEALING.—Our Chief of Police was notified yesterday that on Saturday a horse and rider were captured in the Seventh street. The thief is known to be a man of medium size, wearing a black coat and
trousers, and a black hat. He was riding a
dark-colored horse, and was wearing a large pocket knife and a pistol. He was
seen near the intersection of Fourth and Seventh streets, and was last seen near
the intersection of Fifth and Seventh streets.

GYMNASTIC ENTERTAINMENT AT MASONIC TEMPLE.—The sale of reserved seats for the grand exhibition of the "Louisville Gymnastic Association," advertised in another column, will begin this morning at Mr. Louis Tripp's Music Store, 92 and 94 Jefferson street. The gentlemanly and accomodating Mr. Hall will kindly wait upon all, and will answer all questions pertaining to the entertainment. Don't wait until to-morrow to secure seats, for you may be disappointed. The large audiences that attended their first exhibition cannot be crowded into Masonic Temple.

THE RACE FOR CERTIFICATES.—The excitement about the approaching drawing of the Opera-house Art Association appears to be steadily increasing. The Association is a success, and, as great successes are popular, everybody is now rushing in for certificates. Now that they cannot be had at the regular agencies outside, people are going wild for them. We are glad that the enterprise will result happily for Mr. Crosby, for it is an arduous one, and congratulate the management on its achievement.

WHEEL OF FORTUNE.—The large express wagon belonging to the paper-mill had a wheel knocked off while crossing the railway track opposite the Louisville and Nashville depot yesterday afternoon. The wagon was heavily loaded with bundled paper, and having let down in the middle of the road, it blocked the track for some time, greatly to the annoyance of the car men and passengers.

ATTENDED BURGLARY.—About 1 o'clock Sunday night an attempt was made by a burglar to effect an entrance into the house of E. S. Tuley, Assistant Postmaster, No. 231 First street, between Walnut and Chestnut. The rascal fled without accomplishing his diabolical purpose.

Jefferson Circuit Court—Criminal Term—First Day.

CASES SET FOR TRIAL.
Yesterday the January criminal term of the Jefferson Circuit Court commenced, and as there were many cases on the docket the day was spent in setting cases for trial.

The first business was the appointment of a grand jury, who were sworn in, and sent to their room. They were: Theodore Brown, foreman; David Bell, W. H. Myers, George George, E. S. Slocum, A. Baker, M. M. Rhorer, James Murray, Weldon Gray, Fred Huntzinger, F. S. Drave, Jesse Bayles, E. Barlow, J. W. Hughes, Fulton Neil, and George Retters.

The new Sheriff, J. Wash. Davis, and his deputies, Sam Hite, H. C. Thomas, Jr., and Elijah Davis, were sworn in as officers of the court and took their positions.

The court room was crowded full with witnesses, defendants, and curiosity seekers, and it was difficult that a person could crowd his way in.

The setting the cases for trial was taken up by the court as soon as the grand jury retired, and the following cases assigned for trial under the dates given:

John G. Green, Simon Goodwin, and Mike Judge.

January 16—Charles Lawler, Leonard Purdins, Joseph West, Alery Fry, Mary Washington, and Caroline Roberts, Charles Davis and Turner.

January 17—Jess Lopal, Robert Arnold, John Brattin, Woods, May Flood, (2 cases) and Louisa Scott.

January 18—Harrison Hutchings, William Nelson, W. C. Dugay, George and Gandy Randolph, Thomas Boyd, Francis Walters.

January 19—Hezekiel Henry, Joseph Zeller.

January 20—Wm. Brown.

January 21—Coleman Smith, L. Gray, Richard Bartley, Mrs. Ann Speuer, Alonso Polton (2 cases), George Ann Thun, Daniel Webster, Robert Caw, and January 22—Joseph Shuster, Ed. Hammond and Mike Judge.

January 23—George Rollinson, James Garrison, James Smith, Wm. Phillips.

January 24—Berry Holden, Humphreys and Armstrong, Frank Armstrong (two cases), Ben Carter, Carl Cooper and W. H. Elwood, Nellie Swart.

January 25—Wm. Billings, John Kapp, John Bright, H. Pullman, Gotlieb Jaenke, Nancy Phillips, J. Reese.

January 26—Wm. Brown, Lynch and Pease, Wm. Rees, Joseph Adams, Sam. Smith, Barney Woods, Sam. Wilson, John Kapp, John Bright, H. Pullman, Gotlieb Jaenke, Nancy Phillips, J. Reese.

January 27—Scott, Robards and others, James Biggs.

January 28—John Fairleigh.

January 29—Robert Smith, W. McLaughlin.

The following cases were continued until next term: Wm. Jones, George McGuire, Preston Smith, August Hillbrecht, Michael Carroll, J. Wilson, Thos. Butler, Ed. Terrell, McCluskey, nolle prosequi; John Gordon, Wm. Berline, G. W. Wigert, Chas. Withers, Wm. Johnson, Geo. Lewis, Peter Lilar, Janis Reville, James Wilson, John McElrone, Jack Stevens, John Rafto.

The following cases were dismissed: George Dunn, Lucy Letapee, on nolle prosequi; Joseph B. Tarleton, on nolle prosequi; Louis Ryan, on nolle prosequi; John Gray, alias West, on nolle prosequi; James Dozier, Wm. Donald, Wm. Swart, and Alonso Pettis.

The following case was struck from the docket: Belle Hoover.

The above cases were all felonies, but the following misdemeanors were also set for trial, &c.:

January 18—G. Randolph.

January 25—G. Guanagan, 3 cases;

H. Maples, Jas. Stoltz, 1 case;

John G. Green, 10 cases;

W. P. Hays, 24 cases, pardon filed. Thus, O'Neal, 24 cases; Thomas and Lance O'Neal, 3 cases; Louisville Association, 10 cases; John Merrill and O'Neil, 12 cases; True Feathers and Carroll, 6 cases; Geo. Harmon, 16 cases; Harmon, Feathers, O'Neal, and Carroll, 5 cases.

These latter cases are all for gambling.

STOLEN ANTIQUES.—The tenders named are impeded to restore them to their owners, and to ascertain where to find the fresh stolen.

Surroundings.—The cases have retired to their homes, and darkness now prevails.

ANOTHER ANTIQUE.—The

Following cases were dismissed: A. Monroe, W. Hoke, and —

The following cases were continued: Alexander A. Bifur, (3 cases), H. Simpkins, (12 cases).

The court will be in session again to-day at 9 o'clock.

GRAND MUSICAL CONCERT.—The friends of Mr. H. Alex. Bischoff, the popular young tenor of this city, have tendered him a complimentary concert to take place at Harmony Hall, corner of Third and Jefferson streets, on Thursday evening. It will be participated in by some of the most talented amateurs of Louisville, and is sure to delight all who attend.

The following cases were dismissed: A. Monroe, W. Hoke, and —

The following cases were continued: Alexander A. Bifur, (3 cases), H. Simpkins, (12 cases).

Ashley's Reconstruction Bill.

To the Western Associated Press.

New York, Jan. 11.—The New York Herald's Richmond dispatch says almost all the freedmen are unwilling to work by contract during the present year. This is also the case throughout most of the Southern States, the laborers preferring a share in the crop.

The Herald's Havana correspondent of the 7th says the whole capital of Cuba of Spain has been 1,000,000 and a million three hundred thousand pesos since the end of the war. This was due to the payment of debts.

The people's treasury department of the Cuban government has been 1,000,000 pesos.

We have no news of the Spanish government.
